Foam Mounting Squares Add Scrapbooking Depth

We recently heard from another satisfied customer who uses our Extra Thick Foam Mounting Squares to give his projects added depth:

"My name is Frank Garcia and I work for Prima Marketing Inc. a scrapbooking company located in Chino, CA. I am an educator that teaches classes all over the country and internationally and I have been using your Extra Thick Foam Mounting Squares for years now on my scrapbooking projects and classes."

Thanks for the feedback, Frank! We want to hear from you. How are you using our Foam Squares or other Super Glue products?

Take Super Glue Hiking!

This exciting story came to our attention from The Original Super Glue@ customer, G. Neumaie:

"We were on vacation in Ecuador. When we left for a hiking trip, I made sure to bring a couple of tubes of Super Glue. To make a long story short, we drove from Quito out to the Mountain Tungurahua out past the city of Ambato... The volcano awoke, shaking the whole mountainside with a roaring low pitch sound like a thousand thunderstorms. Some of us fell down on the sharp rocks. We had to get out in a hurry. There were wounds that were bleeding, but the priority was to get off the mountain. Out came the Super Glue! A few dabs on the wounds after a quick wipe and the bleeding stopped..."

Wow! Find out what else happened on their trip here.

What Can You Do With 1,000 Packages of HandiTAK?

Back in 2006, a customer sent us this picture of her bedroom. After coming across this picture recently, we were just as astounded by her creativity as we were all those years ago. It's yet another example of all the creative ways that customers regularly find to use our products. Using our reusable adhesive, HandiTAK, she was able to turn her entire room into one giant collage of all the things most important to her (including one of the best sitcoms of all time, "Friends").

Find out what she had to say about her amazing project here.

Rain Gutter Repair is Just a Patch Away

With the end of summer comes the beginning of the rainy season, at least in most parts of the country. Now is the perfect time to clean and repair your rain gutters. After all, once the rains come, it will be too late! To shore up your rain gutters while the weather is still dry, we recommend The Permanent Patch.

Find out more on how The Permanent Patch can solve these common problems.
