

December 2014

monthly newsletter

Super Glue Corporation News: December 2014

Fall Inspired Wreath Using Super Glue

Are you looking for last-minute idea on how to decorate your home this Thanksgiving holiday? With relatives flying in from all around the world, you want your home to looks it's very best. Here is a last-minute arrangement you can add to your home with just the use of some pinecones and Super Glue.

Read the Full Article

[Image: <https://www.pinterest.com/>]

Drawer Organizer Using Super Glue

In This Issue:

- Fall Inspired Wreath Using Super Glue
- Drawer Organizer Using Super Glue
- How to Repair Shoe Damage with Super Glue
- Last-Minute Thanksgiving Display and Recipes

Links

- Super Glue Corporation Home Page
- Super Glue Blog

Follow us on:

twitter

facebook

Visit our fan page!

Follow us on:

Pinterest

Forward to a Friend!

Are you tired of having messy drawers but find it difficult to keep it organized? This simple project can help you organize any drawer in your house without spending a fortune. Using strong adhering Super Glue and cardboard you can create these dividers.

Read the Full Article

[Image: <http://www.pinterest.com/>]

How to Repair Shoe Damage with Super Glue

At one point or another we've suffered from having damaged or broken shoes. What do you do when your heel breaks or when the rubber sole is separating from the rest of the shoe? Before tossing them, try Super Glue!

Read the Full Article

[Image: www.pinterest.com/]

Last-Minute Thanksgiving

Display and Recipes

Many times, we concentrate on the main portion of our Thanksgiving feast and forget about offering our guests some appetizers before the meal. Here are some quick and simple appetizers you can do without losing too much time and a simple appetizer stand you can create using Super Glue to display these fabulous starters!

Read the Full Article

[Images: <http://www.pinterest.com/>]

Click here to unsubscribe | Forward to a friend