Happy 4th of July! God Bless the USA!

Super Glue Corporation is PROUD to be an American manufacturing company! As we celebrate the 4th of July with family, friends, and maybe even that favorite American past time baseball , we will take time to be grateful for the freedoms we cherish here in America! We are thankful to all the troops, past and present, who fight to keep us safe, secure and FREE! Happy Birthday, America!! Thanks, Lee Greenwood, for your amazing song, God Bless the USA!!

You've heard of lifesavers, right? Well, here's a picnicsaver idea!!

Instead of worrying about your next picnic tablecloth flying away or billowing in the wind, take a few minutes to epoxy some clothespins to the underside of your picnic table and easy as a snap you have security for the day!! Use The Original Super Glue brand waterproof epoxy and you will be set from season to season!!

Happy 4th! Happy Summer!!

Nautical Themed Bedroom! Stick with the Details!!

This nautical themed bedroom is terrific! It's all DIY and filled with creativity! We love the porthole mirror idea!!! It was handmade with simple craft supplies from Michaels! The round wooden piece was spray painted white, and the small birch buttons were painted gold, and then both the smaller round mirror and the gold buttons were attached using super glue!!

You can find more of the nautical bedroom ideas and all of the details for how it was created by going directly to the centsationalgirl.com blog. Fresh and Fun! We love it!!

Life Saving Super Glue To The Rescue For Kansas Baby!

According to a story published on June 9, 2013 by FoxNews.Com, a baby at the University of Kansas Hospital was saved from a “traumatic hemorrhage” by doctors and super glue!

Ashlyn Julian, a 3 week old baby girl, had a MRI that, according to the article, “revealed an olive-size aneurysm that was causing bleeding in her brain”. Apparently such aneurysms are very rare in children and so, according to neurosurgeon Dr. Koji Ebersole in the article, “No infant-size tools are made for treating the condition ... Wary of the approach typically used for adult patients - opening the skull to operate on the aneurysm – Ebersole and a team of doctors from several area hospitals on Wednesday decided to repair Ashlyn’s brain from the inside.”
