Hobbies and Holidays – Hold On To Your Wheels!

Thanksgiving is just around the corner and we are truly thankful for our amazing customers. Consumer stories keep us informed and up-to-date on product specifications that work for our customers and enable them (you) to do the things they (you) enjoy!

Holidays are the perfect time for family fun! And whether you are into hobbies where you build things, like model-making, or hobbies where you go places, like bike riding, you need to make sure you hold on to your wheels!

Recently, Syanna wrote in to tell us how she has become a hero at home all because she is able to fix her kids toys in seconds “Any broken toy that they have they will ask me ... Mommy, can you fix my toy with superglue?” Check out this ‘before and after’ shot of a yoyo Syanna (with her handy tube of super glue) was able to repair.

Paranorman and 77 Gallons of Super Glue!

According to this blog post written by Jeremy Lazanowski 77 gallons of super glue were used in the making of the unique, blockbuster, 3D animated feature film, Paranorman! Wow, that’s a lot of super glue even to us — and we love the stuff!

Super Glue Team Hits Universal Studios!

Super Glue Corporation treated employees along with their families, and all of its local vendors, to a day at Universal Studios recently. Over 360 people attended the fun-filled day! A picnic lunch was served in an amazing star-studded dining room with Shrek videos looping non-stop for the kids! All of the incredible attractions were available to us (Animal Actors and Special Effects shows were two favorites) and a great time was had by all!
